Torrance Seeks Revenge Against Culver City Nine

Looking to revenge its sole defeat of the young season, the Torrance Bullets battle Culver City Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in Torrance Park.

On Saturday, the Bullets will warm-up for the Sabbath engagement against the Torrance Red Devils in another 3:30 p.m. encounter in Torrance Park.

Jon Beck, hurling eight frames of no-hit ball, led the local nine to a 4-0 decision over San Pedro Sunday. The former North High ace whiffed nine men, walked five and was touched for only two hits in evening his slate at 1-1.

BECK lost the decision to Culver City earlier in the year and will try to reverse it Sunday.

John Marsden backed up Beck, driving in all four Torrance runs with three hits.

ON SATURDAY, Jon Baker took to the mound, chalking up his first win without a loss as the Bullet gained a 12-7 win over Hawthorne.

John Treese continued his heavy hitting, slamming out five hits in six trips to the plate. In three contests, Treese has gone 10 for 15 in the hitting department.

The Bullets now hold on to a 3-1 mark, dropping their first game of the year to Culver City by a 6-2 margin.

Slo-Pitch Leaders Face First Defeat

Disaster in the form of defeat reaches one its most crucial points tomorrow night in a string of 51 straight victories for the Torrance Tappa Kegga manager Chuck Ryan, Coast Slo-Pitch League.

Gardena, although resting at the bottom of the loop with a 4-6 mark, has compiled all of its victories in its last four contests and according to Kekka manager Chuck Ryan, is the "most dangerous team in the circuit."

The Bulls have an added advantage.

to beat, even though the Bulls feel confident they can pull off at least one upset win.

GIB MATTHEWS leads the league in hitting with a .500 average, while the Keggas as a team pace the loop with a .367 percentage.

In fielding, the Kegs once again reign king with a .955 percentage to their credit.

THE KEGGAS will be missing three of their top men and one of the players present will be sporting a broken finger.

Led by Brian Tulley and Ken Earley, the Bulls have shown vast improvement in recent contests and are currently fielding brilliantly.

TULLY is whacking the oversized ball at a .473 clip with Earley slamming hits at a .423 average.

Torrance will still be tough

RYAN, the Keggas' leading hurler, will be absent Friday, but Bryan Stephen, owner of a 4-0 record with two shutouts on the plus side, will take to the mound.

In other action, the South Torrance Knight Owls will stay home at Torrance Park and attempt to battle off the Hawthorne entry.

RESTING in second place with a 7-3 mark, the powerful Owls lead the league in home runs with five and boast a tight fielding outfit. South has a fielding percentage of .925 for the first half of the schedule.

Gary Falmer leads the Owls with two homers, but the South outfit lacks a man in the top 10 hitting leaders for the circuit.

BILL SCHIPPER is beginning to pick up steam at the plate and last week, as South overpowered Santa Ana in two contests, went six for seven at the dish.

Gene LeRoy is the top Knight Owl chucker with a 5-0 mark.

Club-Swingers Engage Dodgers In Two Battles

Torrance teams will meet the Los Angeles Dodgers Rookie team twice during the summer schedule.

The Rookies have planned a 40-game slate, the largest it has ever undertaken. On July 15 at Torrance Park, the Dodgers will go against the Torrance Connie Mack nine.

At Sawtelle on July 31, the South Bay All-Stars will demonstrate their wares against the 'Bum' juniors.

Garrett Shut-Out Leads Dodger Win

Ronnie Garrett hurled a four-hit shutout at the Tordondo Little League White Sox to guide the Dodgers to a 5-0 victory. Garrett contributed a home run and a single to aid his own cause.

Losing chucker Danny Stern had 10 strikeouts but the Dodgers pushed across one tally in the first, three in the second and a singleton in the fourth to carry home the win.

Winkey Saville pasted two doubles for the Dodgers.

against the Yankees in six innings only to see the Yankees eventually win in 12 innings.

Maintaining their winning ways, the Senators whipped the Cubs, 8-1. Joe Sullivan and Frankie Steward hurled three stanzas apiece for the Senators. Steward pitched shutout ball.

RALPH OLEA and Tommy Lea combined to give the Indians a 3-1 win over the Braves. Lee went the distance on the mound while Olea smashed two hits in a pair of trips to the dish.

Joe Sage contributed a pair of doubles to the losers.

In minor league play, the Cards outdistanced the Orioles, 10-7 and the Red Sox squeezed out a victory over the Stars with victorious relief pitcher Mike Arsenault hitting a game-winning triple. In other action, the Athletics gained a 9-8 win over the Phillies.

STAR-STUDED . . . Surrounded by stars on the deck of Leroy Penhall's stellar raceboard, Hot Cinders, stary-eyed Barbara Fiske, queen of the 14th annual Inboard Sweepstakes Regatta awaits the Independence Day classic at Long Beach Marine Stadium.
